LONDON, W. 1. ~~~~~

THE LONDON LITERARY LOUNGE is described by one of the big daily papers as a "meeting-place for book-lovers who may or may not become bookbuyers—the latest books are lined up for intimate inspection, the obligation to purchase which one feels in an ordinary bookshop is non-existent."

AMBROSIA writes in the Lady's Pictorial :—"Have you ever thought how delightful it would be if there were a place where all new books and magazines were gathered together, where you could browse among them before making selection of those to buy, and where it was possible to do so in cosy comfort? The real booklover does not like to be hurried and jostled in choosing what may be a life-long friend; still less does he or she like buying at random, and there is a great deal to be said for atmosphere. . . ."

"The establishment of the London Literary Lounge affords an opportunity for correcting the tendency to fill one's shelves with promiscuous works purchased on the spur of the moment, because here one has the opportunity afforded of consulting works of standard authors, and in fact inspecting books of every description, without any obligation to buy, and is able to make judicious selections in ease and comfort."

The Printers' Pension, Almshouse, and Orphan Asylum Corporation.

Patron : HIS MAJESTY THE KING.

Bankers : Messrs. BARCLAY & CO., LTD., 19, Fleet Street, E.C. 4.

THE OBJECTS ARE : The granting of Pensions, and maintaining Permanent Residences for Aged and Infirm Printers and Widows of Printers. (The Printers' Almshouses are situate at Wood Green, N.) The Education and Maintenance of Orphan Children of Printers.

THE SUPPORT IS VOLUNTARY : Including subscriptions from those engaged in the Trade, and also Contributions from the Wealthy and Benevolent. Annual Subscriptions of 5s. and upwards, and Life Donations of £2 2s. and upwards, entitle to Votes at Elections of Recipients.

IN ITS OPERATION the Corporation is at the same time Charitable and Provident.

£9,600 annually expended in Benefits.

There are at present 570 Pensioners, 32 inmates of the Almshouses, and 12 Orphans.

Notwithstanding the amount annually expended, the Corporation cannot keep pace with the increasing demands made upon its benevolence, there being now a list of over 100 candidates for Pensions, all highly deserving because of their annual payments to the Institution.

The Annual Revenue from the Operatives in the Trade does not provide the amount annually paid, and therefore urgent but respectful appeals are made to the Benevolent and Wealthy to assist by Subscription or Donation.

Printers by the exercise of their Art have conferred such incalculable benefits upon mankind, by the dissemination of knowledge, and by affording the means of intellectual and moral culture, that the claims of this Corporation to sympathy and benevolent consideration can scarcely be overstated, and in the words of the late Very Rev. Dean Stanley may justly be urged upon "all who have written" and upon "all who have read." See Sermon on the Origin of Printing.

Contributions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by WM. A. CLOWES, Esq., Treasurer, or by the Secretary.

There are 119 Special Pensions, each bearing the name of the Donor. The Council earnestly desire an extension of the list—a most worthy means of perpetuating a name or memory.

The Secretary will be pleased to furnish any further particulars desired.

HOME FOR AGED GOVERNESSES, Chislehurst.

The work of the Society is most comprehensive in character : It assists Governesses by investing their savings in Annuities, and helps them in their annual payments ;
it provides them with a temporary home at a small cost and a registration office through which they can obtain engagements entirely free of expense, not only as is customary to those seeking Governesses, but also to the Governesses themselves ; it maintains a Seaside Holiday House for Governesses and makes them grants when in difficulties. It secures them a settled Income in the form of free Annuities, and a Home for their declining years. Further, it offers a means whereby, through the payment of an Annual Subscription, they can claim the special consideration of the Society should necessity in later years compel them to seek its assistance.

SUMMARY OF A YEAR'S WORK.

1944 Governesses were assisted in the following manner :—

- 403 received Free Annuities ranging from £25 to £50 per annum.
- 138 Gifts to the value of £500 were made to Candidates.
- 12 were maintained at Chislehurst.
- 414 received Gifts of Clothing and Money amounting to nearly £2,300.
- 183 resided at the Home in Harley Street.
- 546 were provided with engagements through the Free Registration Office.
- 109 visited the Furneaux Holiday House, Shanklin.
- 138 took advantage of the benefits of the Provident Fund.
- 1 free pupil was maintained at Queen's College.

THE APPEAL OF TO-DAY.

MANY well considered and carefully planned Postal Appeals are unsuccessful because the letters used are so obviously circulars.

UNLESS your letters are reproduced in exact Facsimile—unless the names and addresses match perfectly the body of the letter—and the signature is reproduced in imitation of freshly blotted handwriting—the chances of success are not very bright.

THE SUCCESSFUL Appeal of to-day is handled by “Facsimile” who reproduce Facsimile letters that command attention and get results.

“FACSIMILE” also find suitable names to whom you may direct your Appeal, address your envelopes carefully, fold and enclose the letters, stamps and posts them. Such a complete service to those who appeal through the medium of the post for Funds or Business must therefore appeal to you.

Write or call to-day for specimens and prices of our work and further particulars of the service we render.

PREFACE

THE object of this book is to include in one GENERAL ALPHABETICAL LIST all those who have a definite position arising either—

- 1.—From Hereditary Rank—Peers, and all their children, and Baronets;
- 2.—From Titles or Orders conferred upon them by the Sovereign:—Privy Councillors, Knights of the Garter, of the Thistle and of St. Patrick, Knights and Companions of the Orders of the Bath, of the Star of India, of the St. Michael and St. George and of the Indian Empire, Knights, Commanders, and Members of the Royal Victorian Order, Knights and Commanders of the British Empire, and Members of the Order of Merit, and Knights Bachelor;
- 3.—As Members of Parliament;
- 4.—As members of the higher grades of the diplomatic, legal, military, naval, clerical, colonial, or civil services of the State—Governors of Colonies, Ambassadors, Judges, Admirals, Generals, Surgeons-General (but not persons under such grades, although their names may appear by virtue of their holding one of the other qualifications mentioned), Bishops, Deans and Archdeacons in England and Wales;
- 5.—As Deputy-Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace for the Counties of England and Wales, King's Counsel, Royal Academicians, Presidents and Vice-Presidents of Learned Societies;
- 6.—AND THE CHIEF LANDOWNERS WHEN THEY ARE BOTH OWNERS AND OCCUPIERS OF ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL COUNTY SEATS.

The distinguishing feature of the book is that, from its ALPHABETICAL ARRANGEMENT, any one can at once ascertain whether there is any person bearing a particular title, and, if so, to what family he belongs, and his address, and also who is the heir to any Peerage or Baronetcy.

As the book embraces so many classes, it is necessary to limit strictly the space occupied by the various entries; we are thus precluded from giving more than the most important services of each person whose name may be found in its pages.

As in previous editions, a proof of each entry has been submitted to the person to whom it has reference, and the correctness of the work is thereby insured.

The corrections in the present edition have again been of an unusually heavy character; this is, of course, mainly to be attributed to the fact that such a very considerable proportion of those whose names will be found in the pages of the book, and who had felt it incumbent upon them to offer their services to their King and Country, have been awarded distinctions or received promotions in rank. Unfortunately it is again also in some measure due to the fact that so many of them have fallen at the Front.

At the commencement of the book will be found a list of all Peers of the United Kingdom arranged in order of dignity, with the date of their creation; a list of places returning members to the House of Commons; a list of the Foreign Ministers in England and British Ministers abroad, and the names of the Ministry.

KELLY'S DIRECTORIES LIMITED.

BISHOPS (24).Style, Right Reverend.

The Bishops of London, Durham and Winchester take precedence in right of their respective sees; the other Bishops in the order of their consecration. The Bishop of Sodor and Man has no seat in Parliament. The Statute 10 & 11 Victoria, cap. 108, enacts that, upon a vacancy in an English or Welsh bishopric, the newly consecrated bishop (unless elected to one of the archiepiscopal sees, or to one of the sees of London, Durham or Winchester) shall not be entitled to sit; but the summons is to be issued to such one of the other bishops as has not previously been summoned.*
